

The Goods Movement & International Trade Advisory Committee provides expertise regarding the safe, efficient delivery of goods to and from our ports and borders in California, identifies key challenges to trade and goods movement industry growth and offers recommendations for policy solutions. Recommendations will be featured in the CED's Annual Report, which is prepared for the Governor and Legislature and delivered in February of each year.

The Advisory Committee is chaired by Omar Benjamin, CED Commissioner and Executive Director of the Port of Oakland.

Committee members are:

Bill Barkett, President and CEO, Merjan Financial
John Bowe, President, American President Lines
Steve Callaway, Senior VP, AMB Property Corporation
Jose Duenas, Executive Director, Center for International Trade Development, Peralta Community College District
William Fong, Executive Vice President, East West Bank
Dr. Geraldine Knatz, Executive Director, Port of Los Angeles
Chuck Mack, Western Region VP, Teamsters Union
Alan McCorkle, Senior VP, APM Terminals
Scott Moore, Vice President of Public Affairs, Union Pacific Railroad
Joseph Radisich, International VP, ILWU
Rani Yadav-Ranjan, President and CEO, Navigator Technology

Committee Member Bios